Welcome to Confluence!

Confluence is an enterprise wiki system available to Canisius College offices and departments, for sharing documentation both internally and with other members of the Canisius community. Confluence is a quick and easy way to publish and maintain content (text, images, video) on the web. This can be helpful for communicating within your office, department, or division, or keeping regularly-updated information available for all campus users (and the general public).

Where to start?
You'll find a search box below, which searches all of the accessible pages within Confluence. If you'd prefer to just browse to see what is available, start by picking a space below!

If you think Confluence may be a helpful tool for you, would like to have a change made to your existing Confluence space, or have another question or concern about Confluence here at Canisius College, please contact the FacTS Center.

For all technology concerns unrelated to Confluence, please contact the Canisius College HelpDesk at x8340, or helpdesk@canisius.edu.

To learn more about Confluence, you can start by viewing the "Getting Started in Confluence" space, linked in the list below.
