

Academic Recovery Program

At Canisius, eligible students can participate in an Academic Recovery Plan using services available through the Griff Center for Academic Engagement. This is a mandatory part of the Academic Probation Program for students deemed eligible for the program.

As the support services video illustrates, the Academic Recovery Program and your work with a mentor provided by the program is intended to help you to achieve success at Canisius and beyond. We look forward to working with you.