Getting Started

1. Read and sign the required Registration Form and Indemnity and Release Form the first week of classes.
2. If your professor has pre-selected your service site choice(s), please see which sites you may choose at the course-specific sites page.
3. If your professor indicated you may select your site, then select your site below from the alphabetical list.
4. Contact the community organization that you would like to work with this semester. Contact information included in the links below.
5. Register by September 23, 2022 at the bottom of this page after selecting your service site or click here: Register.
6. Print your time sheet and bring it with you to your service site.
7. Start your community-based learning by week 4 or 5 of the semester.
8. Complete Self-Evaluation and Community-Based Learning Experience Survey at the end of semester.

Choosing Your Site

Read your course syllabus carefully: does the professor require you to complete Community-Based Learning at a specific site or sites? Or may you choose any site available?

Course-Specific Sites

In certain courses, professors have specific sites you must choose for your Community-Based Learning. Click here to determine which sites, if any, you must choose for your course.

Service Sites A to Z Listing

Below are all available Community-Based Learning Sites, in alphabetical order. If your professor has not specified a specific site or sites required for their course, you may choose a site below.

Review service sites for descriptions and contact information. Then choose ONE site and contact the site to confirm that you are accepted to serve there. Then, click on the "Register" button and fill out the form.
